As per notings by the Registry, neither the counter affidavit has been filed nor the cost has been deposited. However, this fact is disputed by counsel for the respondents stating that the cost was deposited way back on 5th July, 2019 and the counter affidavit was also filed on the same date.

After verification, it is brought to our notice that the cost has been deposited and the counter affidavit was also filed. However, there were some defects in the counter affidavit and, therefore, same could not be placed on record. Respondents are directed to cure the defects within two days' time, failing which, it will not be taken on record.

Rejoinder, if any, be filed within four weeks.
