MA 2898/2019

Considering the fact that the Writ Petition filed by the respondents in the Delhi High Court has not come up for hearing and there is no motion for stay of the order passed by this Tribunal which is pending consideration in the said Writ Petition, judicial propriety requires that till the application for motion of stay is taken up by the Delhi High Court, coercive action should be kept in abeyance.

We grant two weeks' time to the respondents to seek appropriate orders from the Delhi High Court.

Re-list on 21.02.2024.
