ORDER
25.07.2023

MA 2898/2019

Despite the order passed on 16th May, 2023, granting two weeks' time for taking necessary steps to ensure implementation of the order, we find that no plausible explanation has been offered for the delay. We do not appreciate non-implementation of the order which has been pending since long. An order dated 8th February, 2019 had been subjected to review application and also leave to appeal, all of which have been dismissed way back. We, thus, direct that the authorities shall come back positively with the implementation of the order within two weeks from today failing which this Court will be inclined to saddle heavy costs on the officer who has purposely delayed the compliance of the order passed by this Court.

2. Put up again on 11th August, 2023.

3. MA 1934/2023 and MA 1935/2023 have wrongly been shown in the cause list as they already stand disposed of vide order dated 16th May, 2023.

4. Let a copy of this order be provided DASTI to both the parties.
